

INTRODUCTIONS

Are essential to social and business life. You want to know who the other man is—where he comes from, what he has been doing, who his friends and associates are.

THE NEWSPAPER

Is the great medium for introductions. It enables you to form the acquaintance of people whom you could meet in no other way. We will be glad to help you use our columns to extend your acquaintance-ship and increase your business. It will pay you to tell every one who you are and what you are doing.

Brothers Meet After 57 Yrs.

Dexter Messenger: A story stranger than fiction comes to us from the city of Bernie, nine miles south of here, where two brothers who had not seen each other for fifty-seven years and who believed each other dead the greater portion of this period were re-united.

They are both old men, whose forms show the long span of years through which they have passed and whose locks are sil-vered by age. The meeting of the brothers was affecting, but very joyful to both. The two men are Esq. James W. Evans, an old resident of Stoddard county, and Thomas J. Evans, of Wells, Minn. They met on Mon-day evening at the Bernie depot. Thomas is 72 years old and Jas. W. 68. —Kennett Democrat.

Well Contracts Let.

The city council has let the contract for the two wells for the waterworks to James R. Sewell of St. Louis, at $5 a foot, which includes piping. He must begin work in 15 days and complete it in 60 days. The minimum depth is 100, in each well, each to be 10 inches in diameter. Each well must stand a test of 100 gallons per minute for 24 hours. —Ken-nett Democrat.

Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I have appointed Mr. Leo A. Greenwell, of Hayti, Missouri, my sole agent to manage and look after my property, real and personal, and to collect and re-ceive all moneys due me. All debts and moneys due me from whatsoever source, or that may hereafter be due me, must be paid either to myself in person, or to my above named agent, and all contracts with reference to any of my property must be en-tered into with myself in person or with my agent.

Investigate Lumber Costs

and know exactly what it will cost you to build and how much you can save by a careful comparison of price and quality. The Campbell Lumber Company, Kennett, Mo., is the largest concern of the kind in the country, owning large factories of their own, and they can save you your railroad fare and freight many times over, and then you can get exactly what you want. Write them for further infor-mation or go and see them.

City and County Maps.

I have on hand a number of up-to-date maps of the City of Hayti, worth $5.00, which I will sell for $4.00. Better buy these quick, as the supply will soon be exhausted. I also have a few county maps, which are a great bargain, at $3.50.
